

Jonny Dicklegs

Molly Lewis

Key of Gm

Verse

Since the sun came up this morning there's a rumor going round
That there's a brand new sheriff who just hobbled into town
He's not an outlaw or a villain, but his reputation sticks
Because where his thighs & calves should go, he's got a pair of dicks

Chorus

Because he's Jonny! Jonny Dicklegs
You won't like him when he's angry
You won't like him when he's cold
Because he's Jonny! Jonny Dicklegs
And he's come to steal your woman & to pan for all your gold.

Verse

Takes a while to put his chaps on, well into the afternoon
So we all just play it cool when he flops into the saloon
But it just takes a pretty gal to put some spring into his walk
(And I'm not talking figurative... His legs are giant cocks)

Chorus

Because he's Jonny! Jonny Dicklegs
You'll have to give him just a minute
He is not quite at his best
Because he's Jonny! Jonny Dicklegs
And he'll rub out all the ne'er-do-wells & ride into the west.

Outro

G^m

(Jonny... Jonny... Jonny)

D⁷

G^m

He's got dicks for legs.