Verse

You ask how I am doing? I assure you I'm fine
 Just another man helping himself to what's rightfully mine
 Did you say I look tired? I'm not tired at all
 I was trying to shatter a ceiling where he built a wall

Pre-Chorus

Didn't I check all the boxes? Didn't I follow routine?
 Didn't I travel the high road? Never was petty or mean?

Chorus

And did I run a clean campaign? Did I inform and entertain?
 And did I let down my guard 'cause my rival had half of a brain?
 Did I let down? Didn't I?

Bridge

All my credentials didn't matter
 All my service & nobody cares
 They tried to purchase the world on a platter
 Phoned in some favors and now it is theirs
 You know it brings me no joy to see you in this hole
 So much the man will destroy just to feel in control
 So goodbye! - Look out below, I'm going high

Verse

I know you want your closure, 'cause the future's unclear
I feel no obligation to tell you what you want to hear
Would you like me to save you? Would you like me to quit?
Or would you prefer it if I taught myself how to knit?

Pre-Chorus

Couldn't you mind your own business? Couldn't you just leave me be?
You brought this all on yourselves, gang. Don't try to pin it on me.

Chorus

Couldn't I peacefully retire / Into these hills I so admire?
Couldn't I serve up the tea while he sets the whole party on fire?
Couldn't I serve? Couldn't I?

Chorus

And when they write this history, I'll take the moral victory
Wasn't I right at the center of all that this country could be?
Wasn't I right?
Wasn't I?
